FATAL FLAWS-LESSONS LEARNED FROM ADOSH INVESTIGATORS

Join us for a Safety discussion with Jessie Atencio, Director for the Arizona Division of Occupational Safety and Health (ADOSH). Jessie Atencio administers the state plan OSHA program. Over the years, Jessie has built lasting impressions with various employers for his enthusiasm and fairness during his onsite inspections. That enthusiasm has been beneficial to the ADOSH program as many new and existing employers call upon him for ways to improve their Safety and Health Management System.
